

BEAMS AND CORBELS, PUR

Product data:

Item No.:	as per price list
EAN-Code:	as per price list
Size:	as per price list
Content/box:	as per price list

Use and advantages:

For the individual decoration of walls and ceilings in living space or commercial areas

- natural rustic looking, like original wooden beams
- in decorative wooden colours light oak, dark oak and white
- in various sizes and lengths
- easy to process by cutting and fast glueing with DECOSA® universal glue without complex construction or attachment
- with accessories iron looking fittings and stain
- paintable varicolourly
- less expensive than original wooden beams
- also suitable for damp locations

Technical data:

Material:	Polyurethane
Temperature resistance:	up to approx. 120° for short time approx. + 100°C in the long run
Thickness of material:	depending on the decor

The beams and corbels are recyclable.

Application:

Cut with a fine saw. Apply adhesive to the back of the beam. Support the beams for several hours. Finally fit the corbels. Joints can be concealed with iron looking fittings or spackle and stain.

Glue consumption: approx. 40 g/m²